

Artifact Examples - Iowa Teaching Standard #7

“Engages in professional growth.”

- a. transcript or report from AEA/College classes involving Professional Development PDT logs, professional journals, staff development, grad classes, workshops ICN classes, professional conferences KU writing training reading, committee work, informal discussions rewriting lesson plans, team meeting agenda membership in professional organizations journal on teaching practices photos of professional library, listserv e-mails professional groups work toward our smart goal, work toward renewal of our certificate, improve student growth, portfolio model inquiry process works collaboratively to improve professional practice and student learning participates in wellness activities – flu shot – cancelled check from fit for life, women on weights additional endorsements, professional magazine subscriptions
- b. Team/departmental meetings and discussion regarding teaching practices PDT, meeting logs, committees/department meetings, classes, workshops share kids, communications, journaling team sharing information with colleagues team agendas, projects with tech coordinator or media specialist lesson plans, book selection committee, collaborative group projects, team teaching, mentoring teamwork, reliable notes from inservice contributions to newsletter, PTA activities sharing at professional development team meetings and faculty meetings improve student growth parent orientation, kindergarten screenings, roundup, fund raising involvement observing colleagues, management teams, curricular teams, grade level teams interdisciplinary projects
- c. CRISS strategies, applying PDT information to artifacts, portfolios, etc. alter lesson plans, assessments, identification, educational philosophy, new research ideas show something in lesson plan learned from conference or best practice, document conversations with others from whom got an idea applies research, knowledge and skills from professional development opportunities to improve practice, smart goal – multicultural, cross curriculum lesson plans, observation brain research implementation of new games, experiment statistical data of smart goals, document how you use professional growth opportunities / may use pictures record growth of smart goal, lesson plans

Artifact Examples - Iowa Teaching Standard #7

“Engages in professional growth.”

- reflect on what has been tried, project citizen, mentoring probes, AR
PDT log REWARDS, corrective reading, KU writing, read naturally assignments for grad credit classes, observation notes, peer feedback on teaching strategies, implementation of ideas learned at conferences, in-services, professional meetings
- d. professional development plan based on evaluation cycle PDT, smart goals, test results, lesson plans, written goals/plans for improvement IEP meetings, team meetings professional portfolios probe data, daily math graphs, PDT logs ITBS and ICAM data, evaluation goal, instructional improvement goals provide evidence of growth, serve on committees to enhance the mission of the school
develop professional growth plan IEP inclusion, adapted PE practices portfolio classes, set goals and assess student data lesson plans showing best practice, lesson plans showing teaching based on data mentor meetings, observations with feedback, peer coaching, adapts to new ideas, aligning teaching to school improvement plan